Liz Wiseman

Liz Wiseman is a researcher and executive advisor who teaches leadership to executives around the world. She is the author of New York Times bestseller Multipliers: How the Best Leaders Make Everyone Smarter, author of Wall Street Journal bestsellers Rookie Smarts: Why Learning Beats Knowing in the New Game of Work and Impact Players: How to Take the Lead, Play Bigger, and Multiply Your Impact, and coauthor of The Multiplier Effect: Tapping the Genius Inside Our Schools.

Wiseman is the CEO of the Wiseman Group, a leadership research and development firm headquartered in Silicon Valley, California. Some of her recent clients include Apple, AT&T, Disney, Facebook, Google, Microsoft, Nike, Salesforce, Tesla, and Twitter. She has been listed on the Thinkers50 ranking, and in 2019 she was recognized as a top leadership thinker in the world.

Wiseman has conducted significant research in the fields of leadership and collective intelligence and writes for Harvard Business Review, Fortune, and a variety of other business and leadership journals. She is a frequent guest lecturer at BYU and Stanford University and is a former executive at Oracle Corporation, where she worked as the vice president of Oracle University and as the global leader for human resource development.
