Convocation Speaker, 2:30 p.m.

Brian P. Murphy founded and was a managing member of Portfolio Advisors, LLC. He retired January 1, 2026. During his career he was a member of Portfolio Advisors' management committee and its investment committee, and he coheaded the advisory services practice. Portfolio Advisors specializes in private equity, private real estate, and private credit investments and manages more than $44 billion for its clients. Portfolio Advisors merged with Future Standard on July 1, 2023. Murphy is now a member of their board of directors and is also a senior advisor to Pelion Venture Partners.

Murphy serves with his wife, Louise, on the BYU Marriott National Advisory Council, BYU President's Leadership Council, and multiple charitable boards. He received a BS in business management with an emphasis in finance from BYU Marriott in 1986 and an MBA from Columbia University in 1988. He is a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA).

Convocation Speaker, 5:30 p.m.

Todd Sears serves as executive vice president and chief financial officer for Walmart US. In this role, he leads the finance function for Walmart US.

Since joining Walmart in 2011, Sears has held several leadership roles across the company's finance organization; most recently, he served as senior vice president and chief financial officer for Sam's Club. Prior to that, his roles included senior vice president for finance in Walmart International, chief audit executive for Walmart's global internal audit team, and assistant corporate controller and controller for Walmart Brazil.

Sears began his career at Ernst & Young LLP, where he spent nearly a decade serving clients in the financial services and insurance sectors, performing audits and providing advisory services.

He received a master of accountancy and a bachelor of science in accounting from Brigham Young University in 2002, graduating with magna cum laude honors. He is a CPA in Washington state and is fluent in English and Portuguese. He also serves on the BYU Marriott National Advisory Council.
